orld that hammered and hammered way until the whole gas question was brought out from under a smother of legal twists and turns and exposed to the light of publicity Out of this decision will grow great reforms in the government of public service corporations. By setting up the contention that a corporation serving the what the people give it, the Consolidated door. I apologize, I apologize. Gas Company has rendered a great service to the public of the United States. The Consolidated Gas Company set up the contention and the United States Supreme Court set it aside.

Fight Lasted Six Years.

The 80 cent gas matter has been before presenting an array of incontrovertible facts and figures, and by the formation of the Gas Consumers' League, brought about the investigation of the gas situation in New York by a legislative committee of which Charles E. Hughes, now and shaking his clenched first show his control of the gas situation of the gas situation in New York by a legislative committee of which Charles E. Hughes, now and shaking his clenched first show his control of the carry part of June.

Masten as Referee. Yustice Lacombe appointed Arthur H. asten, a lawyer, of No. 51 Wall street, s entitled to a fair return upon its estment—at least 5 per ceut. Then put in, under the head of investment, nchises which cost the Consolidated serving corporations not a cent, at a waluation of $12,000,000. They also put in, cision, after hearing evidence and argu-cision, after hearing evidence and argu-ments of an exhaustive nature, upheld every contention of the Consolidated Gas Company. He reported to the United States Circuit Court that the Consolidated Consolidated giving orders. onsolidated Gas Company should be referee was submitted, report, largely as a matter of rou-because his decision would have the United States Supreme Court with statement that the fundimental point issue was the right of the Consolited Gas Company to capitalize its nchises for profit-taking purposes, e whole question of confiscation reved about this point. It appeared it, with the frachises contred as the franchises omitted as

Gas Combines Affected

ROOSEVELT NAMES WATCHORN WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.-Among the by President Roosevelt was that of

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Help Wanted To-Day!

	nt Directory.
	SDAY, JAN. 4, 190
Agents 11
Artists 2
Bakers 6	Ironers
Bartenders 2	Janitors
Bookbinders 2	Janitresses
Bookkeepers 5	Jewellers
Boys 45	Ladles' Tallors .
Bushelmen 3	Laundresses
Butchers 30	Machinists
Buttonhole Makers 1	Managers
Cabinet Makers 1	Manicures
Canvassers 13	Milliners
Carpenters 2	Nurses
Cashiers 8	Operators
Chambermaids 21	Painters
Chefs 1	Photographers
Chauffeurs 1	Printers
Collectors 3	Plumbers
Compositors 4
Cooks (Female) 20
Cutters 8
Dressmakers 18	Pressers
Dentists 3	Pressmen
Dishwashers 3	Salesladies
Drivers 11	Salesmen
Drug Clerks 5	Shirt Hands
Electricians 1
Elevator Runners . 1	Sleeve Hands
Embroiderers 8	Solicitors

Engravers 2 Stenographers (F.) Finishers 6 Trimmers Tinsmiths Foreladies Waiters . Foremen. Harness Makers

Help Ads., 643 more than all other New York papers combined.

THORNTON HAINS ON THE WITNESS STAND TELLS OF THE KILLING OF ANNIS AT YACHT CLUB

thing.' He spent twenty or thirty min- his mouth.

tions with Annis.' Then he would sink know what to do with myself. I don't ter to hear evidence and hair and say: 'My God, my God, she's can't control myself when I see Annis.' fixings and my gun, which I always down to a man on the float, whom he created on his audience.

Then Peter added something like this:

gas, wait for possible objections from the have slept, but I never saw him. He ly and emphatically, in the voice and very little. Sometimes he would be- Raymond Weaver.

allowed to tax the people a percentage told of Peter Hains's sudden entry into forget it! It's all right. Let's forget it!' of the value of the franchises. his house on the night after Claudia He frequently quoted 'The Vampire' or in the court chamber was drawn to "Do you remember what happened on back fully a block before he found the nion. The Consolidated I took him by the arm and a flood of y, by court permission, has disconnected words—just words without him out in the motorboat every day.

The Consolidated I took him by the arm and a flood of y, by court permission, has disconnected words—just words without him out in the motorboat every day.

The Consolidated I took him by the arm and a flood of y, by court permission, has disconnected words—just words without him out in the motorboat every day. not deposited anything with Commis-sioner Shields since last October, but meaning—poured from his lips. Then he On July 25 we went up the Shrews- nesses to the tragedy excepting one. the money is held by the company as sank into a chair with his feet extendafely as though it were in his charge, and it will be returned to the consum
and it will be returned to the consum
This all right! It is all right! red and it! After that he hummed a tune which Hook. He asked me to run up to them. turned his eyes toward Mr. McIntyre hand on the shoulder or left side of the I did not recognize. This went on half impounded the various gas an hour. He was shaking all over and have printed on every hill an hour. He was shaking all over and twelve knots, my brother suddenly Annis, after seating herself, fastened ture—"and selzed him. I rushed forpaid a conspicuous warning to the con- in a state of nervous excitement. I tried sumer to save that particular bill. An to get him to eat, but he refused. Finalinteresting question to be settled is to be settled is to be settled in the same of the settled in the settled in the settled is to be settled in the ly he said, 'Let's go to see pa.' I walked him to the fort. Because of his dispirited and excited appearance I eared to put him on a street car.

"It took up a long time to reach the boat and cursed the soldiers. examined him closely and prescribed and said to me: comide of petassium for him, which I-giving his own conclusions, but the Jus-

Repeats Confession Details.

After telling of the administering of Claudia Hains had made a second con-fession. Capt. Hains put in, saying, 'I "In your opinion were his acts racan't think, I can't do anything; I'm tional or irrational?" asked Mr. Mctired out.' Mr. Bennett, the lawyer, Intyre. "They were most irrational," a came in a little while, and in about an said Hains. 14 hour we all went in the house to the "Before your brother's return from the confession of Mrs. Claudia Hains, I had been dickering with Mr. Jesper-2 his testimony conforming closely to that son and Mr. Bugg, who have both testi-2 of Gen. Hains. During this meeting, fied here. Back in March I met Jes-Hains said, the Captain would jump up, person on a Broadway car and recogpanting, with his hands to his head, and 'nized him. He told me he was now in ory out, "Oh, my God! My God! How the real estate business, and I told him they were correct. She said they were, las Manor. He then asked her to sign the paper "I agreed to go to his office that afterand she came over to the table and noon, but failed to do so. After that he Bayside Bayside Yacht Club?" "I did The Judge broke in with the queswrote her name."

nature on the so-called confession. Bayside Yacht Club.

After the woman had gone back upstairs to bed Thornton Hains said that lots. As I understand it, Mr. Bugg said "Did you say within hearing of the .01 he, at his father's request, took Peter he would be at Bayside or at the Bay- boy of the surrey: 'Now we've got "No. tell you." Hains home to Bay Ridge and kept side Yacht Club any Saturday. I think him?" The World printed to-day 1,022 ton Hains was required now to describe that next Saturday or the following "Did you say anything to the Cap- only said: 'Come on, I'm going home.'

I know everything. She's told me everything. She's told me everything. I was so shocked for a minute in thing. I was so shocked for a minute in the back of the staggered or stumble of the back of th utes telling me of his wife's admissions . During the next few days he grew mittee of which Charles E. Hughes, now Governor, was appointed counsel. By virtue of the evidence gathered by the committee a law was passed by the Legislature of 1906 fixing the price of gas in certain parts of New York City, including Manhattan and Brooklyn, at 60 cents per thousand feet.

This law was to have gone into effect.

This law was to have gone into effect on May 1, 1906. The authorities failed to take any steps to enforce it and the Congoliated Gas Company, except where estopped by the Gas Consumers' League, 15 for the stand and shaking his clenched fists above his head again, in vivid illustration of his trother's behavior. "His eyes glared, his face was drawn and distorted and his language was broken and disconnected."

Good Actor on the Stand.

"Did you go with him to see your father?" "I did. We spent practically all of that day—it was Sunday—with my cather down at the fort. Father ate a turned ghastly white and his teeth to head again, in vivid illustration of his head again, in vivid illustration of his thead again, in vivid illustration of his torder's behavior. "I brought him over to New York once, and we were walking down the his face was drawn and disconnected."

Good Actor on the Stand.

"Did you go with him to see your father?" "I did. We spent practically all of that day—it was Sunday—with my wouldn't be sure. My brother's face turned ghastly white and his termination of his torder's behavior. "I brought him over to New York once, and we were walking down the base stand of Broadway between Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets when he suddenly stopped, grew rigid, trembled all over and said, 'Annis.' I looked across the street and saw a man that looked like Annis, although I wouldn't be sure. My brother's face the committee of the committe turn of his eye to see what effect his thirty times that summer. We would narrative might be having upon them. run at top speed all day covering 100 He was smiling with seeming satisfactor or 200 miles, and once circling Staten tion as his guards led him, handcuffed, Island twice the same day. My father Intyre. "Only about the length of this Twice more I said, Come on, Pete, I'm ence being in the time that elapsed be-the afternoon session by the news that or about Aug. 42" "Yes, we went to Captain. Attorney-General Jackson argued stand. Flushing townspeople, with a case before the United States Suthin sprinkling of Manhattanitas thin sprinkling of Manhattanites, Broadway car. We had just got off the at this point and took the seat which jammed the room when the Justice en-tered. With Thornton Hains back in Garver tered. With Thornton Hains back in of the store when he stopped and shook white and sick in her widow's weeds the chair, McIntyre went at him in this all over. I said, 'What's the matter?' and her huge black hat. "Tell us more about that Sunday —there he goes! That's Annis!—that's column—the motor boat and the craze him. He had disappeared. I knew he centre of the runway. In a few sec-"Well, I was asleep on the utes, and I had a hard time getting him the reason for going to Bayside and went to the runway and started down. —came down the runway. One of them finding us on the front porch of Peter's to be improving mentally. About 5 not proke in to say that the witness was accuse me. I can't live under but little.

Hains confessed her wrongdoing, he sang, 'Oh, How Happy to Be Married!'

After telling of the administering of would accuse you of such things. He daround, the medicines to Peter Hains the prisoner went ahead like this:

would accuse you of such things. He daround, would accuse you of such things. He daround.

the Philippines had you been negotiat-Here Hains detailed the scene during ing for property at Bayside?" "I had. can I stand it?"

I was looking for some seaside property
"Mr. Bennett wrote down her admison which to build a home for my little get in or out of the stage?" "I did vent anybody from interfering with for industrial and community free-called at my house, and then I went to not."

Peter there with him all night. Thorn- we agreed to go out in an automobile anything like it, at any time." is brother's actions during the ensuing Saturday, but I failed to go, and after tain?" "Yes, something about the lots, i that Mr. Jesperson came down to see me but the Captain made no answer. He or I'll kill you?" "No." ays. "From 9 o'clock that night until day- and we talked the project over.

people has a right to claim profits on "and he cried out I broke down your That man has wrecked my home. How of the domestic trouble I was taking club-house?" "I have already and Stand back, I am running this aftering can I stand it? He spent most of the care of my brother. Jesperson said he

the testimony of both Jesperson and to him and then, at his suggestion, we quieter, but seemed to take little or no went to find my father."

quieter, but seemed to take little or no Bugs, who expressly stated that they notice of what was happening.

His Motorboat Dismantled.

"Did you talk with Charles Ray-He thought he could build me a concrete house very cheap if I bought the Bayside lots."

"Did you at any time during th

Then Peter added something like this: carried with me on those trips. Then told of my desire to purchase real esboat, crossed to Fort Hamilton on the I told Mr.

Hains, who had been snapping his re- steamer chair on my upstairs porch, from the Brooklyn Bridge right in front said, 'Annis?' What Annis?' He said, He ate of the World Building we met Charles That's Mrs. William E. Ann's, wife of had told, and one that differed in al-

Weaver-how they talked until it was too late to go to the Hook, how they alone. In one particular he contradicted

The gas companies affected by the decision are the Consolidated, the New Morthern Union. The Consolidated I took him by the arm and a flood of the things which I now recall he said to generate residues and daintily, pointed his client's feet toward the climax of his story—his account of the shooting of Annis, in the New Amsterdam, the Central Union and the things which I now recall he said toward the climax of his story—his account of the shooting of Annis, in the standing on the edge of the float below to give a gentleman's club and II must ask to give a gentleman's club and of the shooting of Annis, in the standing on the edge of the float below to give a gentleman's club and of the shooting of Annis, in the standing on the edge of the float below to give a gentleman's club and of the shooting of Annis, in the standing on the edge of the float below to give a gentleman's club and of the shooting of Annis, in the standing on the edge of the float below to give a gentleman's club and of the shooting of the shoot of the shooting of the shoot o jumped up and threw open the switch, her eyes on the witness and never once ward to get between them. the wheel over hard and as we brushed defendant went on to tell of leaving "My brother dropped his gun at the an officer. I was very much upset and by, narrowly escaping striking their Weaver and starting for Bayside. Meboat, he jumped on the seat of our Intyre introduced the unused return por- arm to strike him again I got between smoke when I'm nervous. But I had no

ome. Dr. Wilson felt Peter's pulse and o'clock that afternoon he came into me "When you left for the Bayside that administered. We also gave him "Thorny, I have just seen father. The witness said that on the ride down Along here Mr. Darrin repeatedly I am a soldier and a gentleman, to Bayside the Captain was pale. He and the papers and th standing behind me and I remarked that didn't mean to shoot anybody." if we did not find Jesperson, we might "Were there any threats?" "Yes, look at the lots."

Annis?" "I did not." platform?" "Not particularly. I saw board, and things like that."

10 "Mr. Bennett wrote down her admis- on which to build a home for my little get in or out of any the Captain shooting Annis?" "I did dom.

The tyranny and abuses of the "Did you see a stage on the way to portrayal of his brother's excited he- Bugg, who showed me upon a map two hundred feet back of the stage, all the up your brother's pistol?" "I did not." havior when Claudia Hains put her sig. lots on the shore at Bayside, near the way over and to pull up close behind made few replies to my remarks."

oom of the club-house and saw a col- "Did you say to any one. Te first tice, who evidently regarded Hains's I know everything. She's told me every- My God, Thornton, I can't stand it." would be at Douglas Manor any Satur- The colored man did not know Jesper- didn't say that."

I ed that my brother had gotten out "What happened when you said to droye the others back he raised both of the carriage and had gone toward Roberts, 'Sand back?' "They stood hands above his head, and I put my dock. I excused myself and fol-back. Some ran and some walked. Rob- arm around him and he walked across the cab boy. Ellerson, the negro, and said, 'He's my brother; what could I that Roberts said I was as guilty as my tect him." Did you see Mrs. Annis go toward "Now, then, after this unhappy

Mr. McIntyre protested at this lan-sault upon her. She seemed about to

"After I had said repeatedly that

I'll give it up when an officer comes.' Gave Up His Gun.

"Being finally satisfied that an officer

then handed Downs my holster also.

after putting the cartridges into my pocket. I led my brother to some up-

"Somebody said that in his country men settled these things with their fists, and I said, 'I guess youre not an American. I'm just as sorry as you

Roberts said something, and I said to

Roberts 'I probably saved your life

Mr. Darrin objected to Mr. McIntyre's

The Court here interrupted with the following: "If his brother's pistol was

him. He might have had other pistols

"Did you say to Mr. Kimmel, 'If Annis had done to me what he did to my brother I would have done the same

"What did you mean when you said to Mr. Stephens that he was evidently passing expression," said Hains plaus-

want to keep in line with the work

C. W. POST

The work is in protection of the

The Square Deal magazine comes question, asking the defendant what he

He might have shot you.'

chewed the stem.

and knives."

not an American?"

down here?' Birchfield said, 'Yes, he's witness stand. Her up curled as the out there now in hoat No .7,' and he defendant made his denial of the aspointed toward a small boat out in the brother and said, 'Come on Pete, Jesperson is not here; let's go.' He made no answer. He was standing with his prisoner, had varied in many notice. on his arm. He threw my hand off captain. The defendant's story made hind Mrs. Annis. So I turned and agreed that the time was between "Did you know he was armed?" "No. 'would take care of my brother until an

"As the shots ended I saw my brother is a gentleman's club and II must ask mean him stand up, still holding the gun. As The all right! Let's forget boat off the hospital just inside Sandy sharp, quick glance at her, and then float, struck my brother with his left years-and dumped the shells out. I

Why He Drew His Gun.

tions of two excursion tickets to show them. This took only a fraction of a Fort because his feet dragged like an old "When we had got by I said, Why that the prothers intended to come pack, second, at the said, who will know to be Mr. Roberts, and he seamed thoroughly achainst did you throw open the switch?" He "Did you know Mr. Annis was a mem-"When we had got by I said. Why that the brothers intended to come back, second, At the same instant another When we reached the Post I sent said, 'Switch, hell: I never touched it.' ber of the Bayside Yacht Club that day came forward, picked up my brother's for Dr. Wilson, who arrived after lunch. Up until that time he had seemed to me when you started for Bayside? "I did dropped gun and swung its muzzle toward me. I can't say he aimed it, but it looked to me as if he did. 1 naturalday did you know where Annis was?" ly supposed the gun had more loads in it, and so I pulled my own gun like this and threw it down in Roberts's face like this"-more spirited panto-I am a soldier and a gentieman. This man Annis has made Claudia looked tired and exhausted and spoke mime—"and I cried out Get back, get back, don't you shoot him. Don't you meant when he said "I am here to pro dice permitted Hains to go ahead. Most thing to do—I must die. There's only one the time Hains's voice had a languid of the time Hains's voice had a languid thing to do—I must die. There's only one we got to bayside a fitte heine to bayside a fit "Did you point your pistol?" "Only at tect my brother." of the time Hains's voice had a languid drawl that bespoke his Southern rearing, but, under stress, he snapped off his but, under stress, he snapped off his am a gentleman and an officer, and a round and found a boy who I have out or his hand before he himself drew As advertised for in The Morning words as if they came from a whip lash words as if they came from a whip lash "I said 'You shan't die, you shall live since learned; was Martin Skurs, with a this way and that, shouting out, 'stand given a chance to explain himself. The here with me. Besides, it may not be surrey. I told him I wanted to look at back. You can't hurt this man. He's witness explained: "I was there to true, it's to monstrous to believe they some lots and asked him to drive us my brother. Get an officer.' I cried this protect him from himself or anybody else. I didn't know he had a gun on out at the top of my voice at least six Jes- times while holding them off."

Lots of shouting and whooping. I heard "Did you ask the boy if he knew one man swear. I suppose it was like "Did you notice a stage at the station a rope." 'Lynch him.' 'Throw him over-some stages and surreys there, but paid "Did you take any hand in the shootno attention to them." ing or try to keep back those who "Did you know Mrs. Annis at that would have saved Annis?" "The shoot-Perhaps You time?" "I never had seen or heard of ing was all over before I got there. I had no chance to interfere until it was "You have seen Mrs. Annis here in all over."

leaders of the Labor Trust have been explained from time to time by Court Asks Questions.

tion: "You say you did not pull your The prisoner gave another dramatic his office, and there I found Mr. Leo "Did you tell the boy to keep one revolver until after Roberts had picked "Did you go down on the float before common man and the Open Shop. your brother did?" "No." "Did you turn to your brother and monthly at $1.00 a year or 10 cents becken him to go down to the float?" a copy. It will contain the best thought of "Did you say come on, and then run the best minds on this subject. down to the float?" "No. I did not. I Address "Did you say to Robert's, 'Stand back

The C. W. Post Press, Ltd. St. James Bidg., New York, N. Y. Or Battle Creek, Mich. "Did you say to Birchfield, Stand

HANDS CRACKED "Did you say to Edwin Andrews, "I move to strike that out," said Da

Itched and Burned Terribly-Arms Affected, Too-Could Not Move Thumbs Without Flesh Cracking - Sleep and Work Often Impossible - Was Fairly Worn Out.

CUTICURA SOON CURED HIS FEARFUL ECZEMA

"About a year ago an itching humor pretty soon it covered both my hands that I could not move the thumbs There was no woman on currence, what then did you do? asked Annis in this court house did you talk I suffered so fearfully that I could not norning, then waking up still tired. am a chef and steward by trade and were so terrible to look at that tney did not like to have me around about the food. I could not bear to touch them with water, but when I positively had to get my hands clean I would rub int of every other spectators, reated on his audience.
"Well," said Hains cockily, "if nobody it on the motor-boat last summer."
"Did you know your brother was armed that day." "I did not. Only the know what to do, for I was fairly worn out. For a long time several friends kept asking me why I didn't use Cuti-Resolvent. I put the Cuticura Oint-ment on at night, covering my hands a month I was cured and have kept so eczema and I think I am well rid of it. Walter H. Cox. 16 Somerset St., Bos-ton, Mass. Sept. 25, 1908."

NOURISHING

Has the best flavor

and contains the most nourishment of any stout that was ever brewed.

Family orders filled by best Grecers and Wine Marchants

JAMES T. HARRIS, N. Y. Agent

5 Cedar St., Phone 1918 John

NEEDY MAY GET LIFE INSURANCE

The girl worried over her inability to

PLAYER-PIANO

This famous Piano equipped with the most jarvellous selfplaying attachment vet devised. Absolutely unequalled.

Inspection invited. Write fo catalogue and full description. Easy terms if desired. Liberal llowance for old pianos.

KRANICH & BACH 237 East 23d Street NEW YORK 16 West 125th Street

SPECIAL FOR TO-DAY-ITH. HOCOLATE SILVER STRINGS...POUND 10c SPECIAL ASSORTED CHOCO-LATES (20 kinds)...POUND 19c SPECIAL FOR TO-MORROW—5TH. COCOANUT KISSES, POUND 10c PECIAL ASSORTED CHOCO-LATES (20 kinds) . . . POUND 19c WE DELIVER FREE PURCHASES OF ONE DOLLAR AND OVER BETWEEN BATTERY AND 2007H STREET; also all Brooklyn proper. We deliver 1 to 10 lbs. for 20c. to points in Manhattan above 200th St., Hoboken and Jersey City. No goods sent C. O. D. Candies for our out-of-town customers carefully packed and shipped from our special mail or-der department.

54 BARCLAY ST.,
Cor. West Brugs.
29 CORTLANDT ST.
Cor. Church St. A Stores Ar Cley Half Passall

GRAND RAPIDS FURNITURE

CASHORCREDIT

NATCHES & DIAMONDS CASH OR CREDIT,

CREDON -On Jan. 1, 1909, ANN, widow William T. Walsh. Funeral, Tuesday, Jan. 5, from her

St. Mary's Church, Grand and Ridge st., where a solemn mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of her soul at 9:30 A. M. Interment in Calvary Cemetery. M'CABE .- On Saturday, Jan. 2, 1909, at

Solemn mass of requiem at Church of St. Paul the Apostle, 60th st, and Columbus av., Thursday, Jan. 7, at 10 A. M. PEPIN .- On Jan. 4. FERDINAND PHILLIP

AUTOMOBILES &

DIED.